Transforming Arkansas to lead the nation in student-focused education

May 6, 2019

Dear Teachers,

When you think of your days in school, what do you remember most? For many people, their fondest memories of school are ones that involve a favorite teacher. For many of your students, their fondest memories of school will be ones that involve YOU!

The complexities of being an educator often go beyond words, so my message to you today is very simple. Thank you.

We at the Arkansas Department of Education appreciate your commitment to student learning. The positive impact you have on your students, your communities, and your state cannot be overstated. Because of you, Arkansas remains the Land of Opportunity.

In addition to the entire ADE team, Governor Asa Hutchinson sends a thank you as well. He recorded a special message for you, which can be viewed at <https://youtu.be/dBrj3eB8R1Q>.

Together, we can help all students achieve their highest potential. Together, we are transforming Arkansas to lead the nation in student-focused education!

Sincerely,
Johnny Key
ADE Commissioner
