Subject: Message #123: Engaging Learners in STEM – AdvancED Arkansas and Arkansas STEM Coalition Summit

Date: February 6, 2017

To: ccss@list.state.ar.us

From: Arkansas Department of Education Curriculum and Instruction Unit

Dear Arkansas Educators,

AdvancED Arkansas and the Arkansas STEM Coalition are hosting a STEM Summit on February 13-14, 2017, co-sponsored by AdvancED Arkansas, Arkansas STEM Coalition, Arkansas Department of Education, and the Arkansas Out of School Network. The Summit will be held at the DoubleTree Hotel in Little Rock, Arkansas. Summit sessions will focus and target effective STEM practices and strategies and engaging student learners in STEM education. The Summit is designed for all community and business entities, higher education, preK-12 public and non-public institutions, out-of-school time program professionals and informal STEM educators, STEM Centers, Educational Service Cooperatives, school board members, superintendents, central office personnel, principals, and teachers. All are encouraged to attend.

Follow this link to register for the Summit and see a draft agenda: <http://www.cvent.com/d/1vqfxc>

There is a block of rooms at state rates available. Follow this link to reserve accommodations at the DoubleTree or call directly:
