Subject: Message #134: Professional Development Opportunity for Visual Art Teachers and Teaching Artists

Date: July 12, 2017

To: ccss@list.state.ar.us

From: Arkansas Department of Education Curriculum and Instruction Unit

Dear Arkansas Educators,

Because we were unable to accommodate so many of the visual art educators and teaching artists who expressed interest in our summer professional development sessions, an additional session of MOVEMENT AND MEMORY: MAKING PERSONAL CONNECTIONS THROUGH WEAVING, presented by Randi Curtis and Barbara Cade, has been scheduled. This workshop will focus on using fiber materials in any classroom setting to create weavings based on personal memories, interests, and ideas of self. The instructional resources provided in this workshop can be adapted to any grade level.

The session will be held on Thursday, July 20, from 9 am to 4 pm at the Mosaic Templars Cultural Center, 501 W. 9th St. in Little Rock. Six hours of professional development credit will be awarded to participants. There is no fee. Space is limited. Please register at the link below right away to reserve your place:
