

BEFORE THE ARKANSAS STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

On August 21, 2014, during a special meeting of the Arkansas State Board of Education, a hearing was conducted pursuant to the legal authority and jurisdiction vested in the Board by the Public School Choice Act of 2013 (codified at Ark. Code Ann. § 6-18-1901 et seq.) and the Arkansas Department of Education Rules Governing the Public School Choice Act of 2013. Before the Board was the appeal of the Zaage family (“Petitioner”) challenging the decision of the Bentonville School District (“Respondent”) denying their application for transfer of their child under the Public School Choice Act of 2013.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Petitioner family resides in the Springdale School District.
2. On or about April 1, 2014, Petitioner submitted an application to transfer one child to Respondent Bentonville School District pursuant to the Public School Choice Act of 2013.
3. On or about July 28, 2014, Respondent denied the application because approval of the transfer would require the Respondent to exceed capacity in a program, class, grade level, or school building in the Respondent district.
4. On or about August 1, 2014, the Petitioner appealed Respondent’s denial to the Arkansas State Board of Education. Petitioner contends that the child has attended the Respondent district for several years and documentation provided by the Respondent district indicates that the child remains enrolled. The Petitioner challenges the Respondent’s denial based upon lack of capacity when, according to Petitioner, it appears that the child remains enrolled.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

5. Ark. Code Ann. § 6-18-1903(c) states that the Public School Choice Act of 2013 “does not require a school district to add teachers, staff, or classrooms, or in any way to exceed the requirements and standards established by existing law.”

6. Ark. Code Ann. § 6-18-1903(d)(1) requires a public school district board of directors to “adopt by resolution specific standards for acceptance and rejection of applications” under the Public School Choice Act of 2013. Those standards may include, without limitation, “the capacity of a program, class, grade level, or school building.” Ark. Code Ann. § 6-18-1903(d)(2)(A).

7. On or about May 20, 2013, the Respondent adopted a district policy that defined “lack of capacity” as:

[W]hen the receiving school has reached the maximum student-to-teacher ratio allowed under federal or state law, the Rules for the Standards of Accreditation, or other applicable rules. There is a lack of capacity if, as of the date of the application for school choice, eighty percent (80%) or more of the seats at the grade level at the nonresident school are filled.

8. The Respondent has the burden of proof in proving the basis for denial of the school choice transfer. Arkansas Department of Education Rules Governing the Public School Choice Act of 2013, Section 10.09.

9. The Respondent has not met its burden of proof in proving that it lacks the capacity to accommodate the requested transfer.

ORDER

10. The Petitioner's school choice appeal is hereby granted.

Signed this 27th day of August, 2014

Sam Ledbetter, Chair
Arkansas State Board of Education
