Introduction

The Arkansas English Language Arts Standards for Grades K-12 have been developed to prepare students for success after high school. Students who are successful in college and careers have attained particular literacy capacities. These students

- demonstrate independence;
- build strong content knowledge;
- respond to the varying demands of audience, task, purpose, and discipline;
- comprehend as well as critique;
- value evidence;
- use technology and digital media strategically and capably;
- come to understand other perspectives and cultures.

The English classroom focuses on reading and analyzing literature and literary nonfiction, studying the English language, and writing about related topics. A separate document, the Arkansas Disciplinary Literacy Standards, has been created to address the unique literacy needs in other content areas.

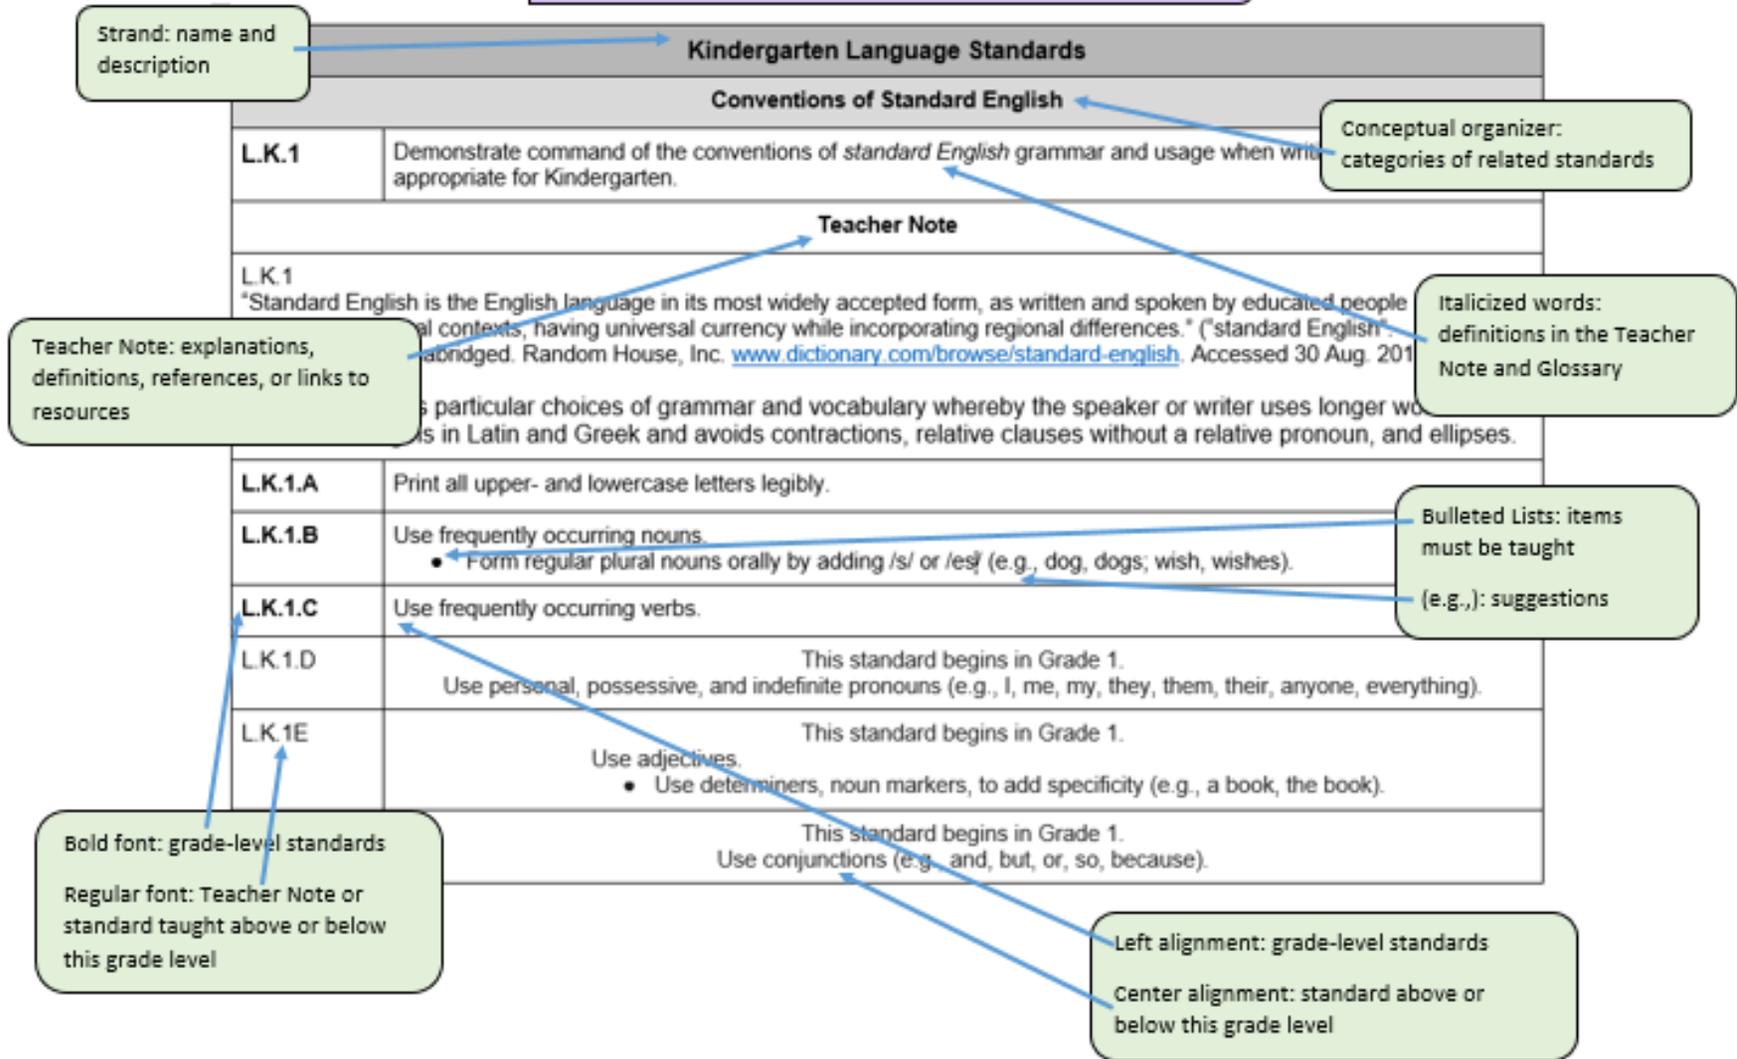

This document is organized around anchor standards and grade-level standards. The anchor standards address overarching knowledge and skills in reading, writing, speaking and listening, and language. Although the document is organized by strands, the standards should be integrated during instruction. The grade-level standards, which are aligned to the anchor standards, represent the progression of learning for Grades K-12. The grade-level standards include teacher notes that provide explanations, definitions, and links to resources to support teachers.

The document focuses on literacy skills rather than literary content. Teachers have the opportunity to select grade-appropriate literature and literary nonfiction texts to teach the standards. The texts must provide opportunities to teach all the strands at grade-level rigor. Three measures of text complexity should guide text selection: quantitative, qualitative, and reader and task. Teacher notes in the grade-level documents provide support for effective text selection.

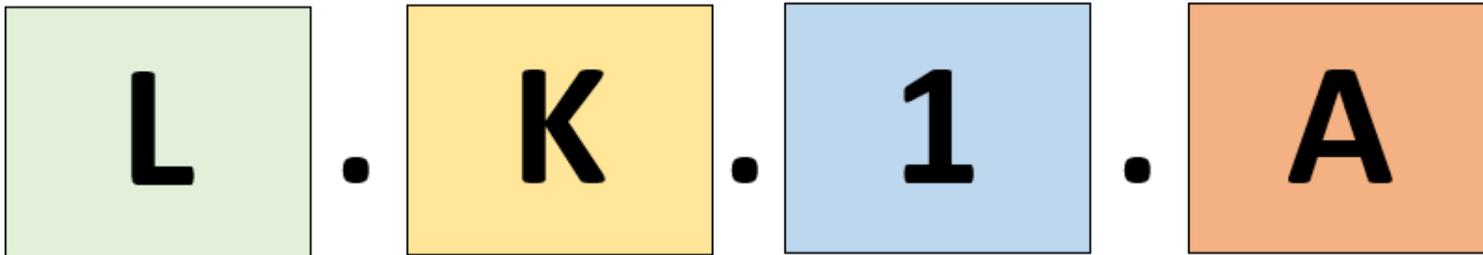

Teachers are encouraged to become familiar with the standards above and below the grade level they teach. The standards below grade level will guide decisions for providing interventions for students who do not have all the grade-level skills in place, and the standards above grade level will guide decisions for extending students who are ready to move ahead. In addition, familiarity with the K-12 standards will support developing a smooth learning progression from kindergarten through high school.

The Arkansas Department of Education academic standards are intended to assist in district curriculum development, unit design, and to provide a uniform, comprehensive guide for instruction. The standards are not intended to be a state-mandated curriculum.

How to Read the Standards Document

How the Standards are Labeled

The letter in the first position of the standard numbering system represents the strand:

Reading Literature (RL)
Reading Informational (RI)
Reading Foundational (RF)
Writing (W)
Speaking and Listening (SL)
Language (L)

The symbol in the second position of the standard numbering system represents the grade level.

The number in the third position represents the standard.

Some standards are broken into segments that are represented by a letter in the fourth position.

How to Label the Anchor Standards

The symbol in the second position of the anchor standard numbering system represents college and career readiness.

The number in the third position of the anchor standard numbering system represents the standard.

Arkansas Anchor Standards for Reading

The standards on the following pages define what students should understand and be able to do by the end of the grade or grade span. The grade-specific standards correspond by number to the Arkansas Anchor Standards for Reading. The Arkansas Anchor Standards and grade-specific standards are necessary complements--the former providing broad standards, the latter providing additional specificity--that together define the skills and understandings that all students must demonstrate.

Key Ideas and Details

1. Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.
2. Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.
3. Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text.

Craft and Structure

4. Interpret words and phrases as they are used in a text, including determining technical, connotative, and figurative meaning; analyze how specific word choices shape meaning and/or tone.
5. Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, chapter, scene, stanza) relate to each other and the whole.
6. Assess how point of view, perspective, and/or purpose shapes the content and style of a text.

Integration of Knowledge and Ideas

7. Integrate and evaluate content presented in diverse media and formats.
8. Analyze and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, including the validity of the reasoning as well as the relevance and sufficiency of the evidence
9. Analyze how two or more texts address similar themes or topics in order to build knowledge or to compare the approaches of the author(s).

Range of Reading and Level of Text Complexity

10. Read and comprehend complex literary and informational texts independently and proficiently.

Note on Range and Content of Student Reading Grades 6-12

To become college and career ready, students must grapple with works of exceptional craft and thought whose range extends across genres, cultures, and centuries. Such works offer profound insights into the human condition and serve as models for students' own thinking and writing. Along with high-quality contemporary works, these texts should be chosen from among seminal U.S. documents, the classics of American literature, and the timeless dramas of Shakespeare. Through wide and deep reading of literature and literary nonfiction of steadily increasing sophistication, students gain a reservoir of literary and cultural knowledge, references, and images; the ability to evaluate intricate arguments; and the capacity to surmount the challenges posed by complex texts.

Grade 8 Reading Standards for Literature

The grade-level standards offer a focus for instruction each year and help ensure that students gain adequate exposure to a range of texts and tasks. Rigor is also infused through the requirement that students read increasingly complex texts through the grades. Students advancing through the grades are expected to meet each year's grade-specific standards and retain or further develop skills and understandings mastered in preceding grades.

Key Ideas and Details

RL.8.1 Cite the textual evidence that most strongly supports an analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

RL.8.2 Examine a grade-appropriate literary text.

- Provide an objective summary.
- Determine a theme of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text, including its relationship to the characters, setting, and plot.

Teacher Note

RL.8.2

Grade-appropriate refers to texts, materials, resources, and activities that are rigorous enough to engage students in grade-level content and concepts across all strands.

Grade-appropriate is tied to text complexity. A wide selection of words will be found in texts that align to the three text complexity measures: quantitative, qualitative, and reader and task for the Grades 6-8 text complexity band. The texts should also be selected to include words for appropriate word study, and spelling development and should have content and literary merit. The text must be rigorous enough to engage students in Grade 8 concepts across all four strands of the English Language Arts standards. Text selection should be a priority consideration when developing a rigorous grade-appropriate curriculum.

An objective summary is a shortened version of an original text that is unbiased and based on facts and does not include personal feelings, interpretations, or prejudice.

Theme is a main idea or an underlying meaning of a literary work that may be stated directly or indirectly.

RL.8.3 Analyze how particular lines of dialogue or incidents in a story or drama propel the action, reveal aspects of a character, or provoke a decision.

Craft and Structure
RL.8.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and/or tone , including analogies or allusions to other texts when applicable.
Teacher Note
RL.8.4 Tone is the author’s attitude towards the subject, characters or situation (e.g., amused, sad, angry).
RL.8.5	Compare and contrast the structure of two or more texts and analyze how the differing structure of each text contributes to its meaning and style.
Teacher Note
RL.8.5 In a novel, the early chapters often establish the setting and provide foundational descriptions of characters who develop across the following chapters. In a play, one scene follows another as the action unfolds. In a ballad, each stanza tells the next part of the story. When writing or discussing stories, dramas, and poems, students should refer to specific chapters, scenes, or stanzas when citing evidence to support their analysis.
RL.8.6	Analyze how differences in the points of view and/or perspectives of the characters and the audience or reader (e.g., created through the use of dramatic irony) create such effects as suspense or humor.
Teacher Note
RL.8.6 It is important to clarify the terms “point of view” and “perspective” for students. Point of view is the position of the narrator in relation to the story (e.g., first person, third person) which is instrumental in manipulating the reader’s understanding of the narrative. In a way, the point of view can allow or deny the reader access into deeper understanding of the story. Two of the most common point of view techniques are the first person, in which the story is told by the narrator from his or her standpoint and the third person in which the narrator is outside of the story and tells the story by referring to all characters and places in the third person with third person pronouns and proper nouns.

Perspective is a particular way of viewing things that depends on one's experience and personality. ("perspective." Cambridge Academic Dictionary. Cambridge UP, 2016, www.dictionary.cambridge.org/us/dictionary/English/perspective. Accessed 30 Aug. 2016.)

In these standards and in an English class, the term "point of view" is used when referring specifically to first person, third person, omniscient, limited, etc., and perspective is used when referring to a particular way of viewing things that depends on one's experience and personality. When analyzing literature, both terms are needed.

For further clarification, students need to know that it is common practice for disciplines other than English to use the terms "point of view" and "perspective" interchangeably to mean what English teachers define as perspective.

Integration of Knowledge and Ideas

RL.8.7	Analyze the extent to which a filmed or live production of a story or drama stays faithful to or departs from the text or script, evaluating the choices made by the director or actors.
---------------	--

RL.8.8	RL.8.8 is not applicable to literature based on anchor standard R.CCR.8. Analyze and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, including the validity of the reasoning as well as the relevance and sufficiency of the evidence.
--------	--

RL.8.9	Analyze how a modern work of fiction draws on themes , patterns of events, or character types from myths, traditional stories, or religious works such as the Bible, describing how the original material is adapted.

Teacher Note

RL.8.9	Theme is a main idea or an underlying meaning of a literary work that may be stated directly or indirectly.

Range of Reading and Level of Text Complexity

RL.8.10

By the end of the year, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, at the high end of Grades 6-8 text complexity band independently and proficiently.

Teacher Note

RL.8.10

It is critical that children are reading on grade-level. “In 2011, sociologist Donald Hernandez reported that children who do not read proficiently by the end of third grade are four times more likely to leave school without a diploma than proficient readers.” (Fiester, Leila. “Early Warning Confirmed.” The Annie E. Casey Foundation, 2013, aecf.org/m/resourcedoc/AECF-EarlyWarningConfirmed-2013.pdf#page=11. Accessed 30 Aug. 2016.)

Grade 8 must build on the strong foundation from Grades K-7 for students to read on grade level. Students in Grade 8 should be reading independently in the upper one third of the grade-level Lexile range between 925L-1185L. Students unable to read independently at the upper one third of the range will need more support to reach the goal of reading independently on grade level. Note that the Lexile ranges overlap, recognizing that students can slip backward in reading achievement while they are not receiving reading support such as during summer break.

Districts choose instructional materials for reading instruction. Text complexity is described in curricular materials using numbers or letters to indicate a learning progression for reading. It is important that the district compare the text complexity of the chosen curriculum against the grade-level Lexile range to ensure that the texts students are expected to read are on grade level. To maintain consistency in rigor and to allow for measuring growth, it will be helpful if a district maintains the same system for measuring text complexity over time and across the grades for accurate comparability.

Arkansas Anchor Standards for Writing

The standards on the following pages define what students should understand and be able to do by the end of the grade or grade span. The grade-specific standards correspond by number to the Arkansas Anchor Standards for Writing. The Arkansas Anchor Standards and grade-specific standards are necessary complements--the former providing broad standards, the latter providing additional specificity--that together define the skills and understandings that all students must demonstrate.

Text Types and Purposes

1. Write arguments to support claims when analyzing substantive topics or texts using valid reasoning and relevant, sufficient evidence.
2. Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.
3. Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details and well-structured event sequences.

Production and Distribution of Writing

4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.
5. Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.
6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and to interact and collaborate with others.

Research to Build and Present Knowledge

7. Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects based on focused questions, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.
8. Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, assess the credibility and accuracy of each source, and integrate the information while avoiding plagiarism.
9. Draw evidence from literary and/or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, research, and synthesis.

Range of Writing

10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.

Note on Range and Content of Student Writing Grades 6-12

For students, writing is a key means of asserting and defending claims, showing what they know about a subject, and conveying what they have experienced, imagined, thought, and felt. To be college- and career- ready writers, students must take task, purpose, and audience into careful consideration, choosing words, information, structures, and formats deliberately. They need to know how to combine elements of different kinds of writing--for example, to use narrative strategies within argument and explanation within narrative--to produce complex and nuanced writing. They need to be able to use technology strategically when creating, refining, and collaborating on writing. They have to become adept at gathering information, evaluating sources, and citing material accurately, reporting findings from their research and analysis of sources in a clear and cogent manner. They must have the flexibility, concentration, and fluency to produce high-quality first-draft text under a tight deadline as well as the capacity to revisit and make improvements to a piece of writing over multiple drafts when circumstances encourage or require it.

Grade 8 Writing Standards

The following standards offer a focus for writing instruction to help ensure that students gain adequate mastery of a range of skills and applications. Each year in their writing, students should demonstrate increasing sophistication in all aspects of language use, from vocabulary and syntax to the development and organization of ideas, and they should address increasingly demanding content and sources. Students advancing through the grades are expected to meet each year's grade-specific standards and retain or further develop skills and understandings mastered in preceding grades. The expected growth in student writing ability is reflected in the standards.

W.8.1	Write arguments to support claims with clear reasons and relevant evidence.
W.8.1.A	Introduce claim(s), acknowledge and distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and organize the reasons and evidence logically.
W.8.1.B	Support claim(s) with logical reasoning and relevant evidence, using accurate, credible sources and demonstrating an understanding of the topic or text.
W.8.1.C	Use words, phrases, and clauses to create cohesion and clarify the relationships among claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence.
W.8.1.D	Establish and maintain a formal style.
W.8.1.E	Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the argument presented.
W.8.2	Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas, concepts, and information through the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant content.

W.8.2.C	Use appropriate and varied transitions to create cohesion and clarify the relationships among ideas and concepts.
W.8.2.D	Use precise language and domain-specific words to inform about or explain the topic.
Teacher Note
W.8.2.D Precise language is specific and non-vague language that spells out relationships between ideas, leading readers to a desired conclusion. These standards refer to two types of vocabulary words. The terminology is based in Isabel Beck's work. General academic words refers to words that can be used across the disciplines. W.8.2.E	Establish and maintain a formal style.
W.8.2.F	Provide a concluding statement or section that supports the information or explanation presented.

W.8.3	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, relevant descriptive details, and well-structured event sequences.
W.8.3.A	Engage and orient the reader by establishing a context and point of view/perspective and introducing a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally and logically.
Teacher Note
W.8.3.A In this standard, the teacher will address both point of view and perspective. It is important to clarify the terms “point of view” and “perspective” for students. W.8.3.B	Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, and reflection, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters.
W.8.3.C	Use a variety of transition words, phrases, and clauses to convey sequence, signal shifts from one time frame or setting to another, and show the relationships among experiences and events.

W.8.3.D	Use precise words and phrases, relevant descriptive details, and sensory language to capture the action and convey experiences and events.
W.8.3.E	Provide a conclusion that reflects on the narrated experiences or events.
Production and Distribution of Writing

W.8.5	Develop and strengthen writing as needed with some guidance and support from peers and adults by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed.
Teacher Note
W.8.5 Editing for conventions should demonstrate command of Language standards 1-3 up to and including Grade 8.
W.8.6	Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and present the relationships between information and ideas efficiently as well as to interact and collaborate with others.
Teacher Note
W.8.6 Students should be given an opportunity to write using digital tools, but not all writing has to be produced digitally.

Research to Build and Present Knowledge
W.8.7	Conduct short or more sustained research projects to answer a question, including a self-generated question, drawing on several sources and generating additional related, focused questions that allow for multiple avenues of exploration.

1. Prepare for and participate effectively in a range of conversations and collaborations with diverse partners, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.
2. Integrate and evaluate information presented in diverse media such as visual, quantitative, and oral.
3. Evaluate a speaker's perspective, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric.

Presentation of Knowledge and Ideas

4. Present information, findings, and supporting evidence with organization, development, and style appropriate to task, purpose, and audience so that listeners can follow the line of reasoning.
5. Make strategic use of digital media and visual displays of data to express information and enhance understanding of presentations.
6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and communicative tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

Note on Range and Content of Student Speaking and Listening Grades 6-12

To become college and career ready, students must have ample opportunities to take part in a variety of rich, structured conversations--as part of a whole class, in small groups, and with a partner--built around important content in various domains. They must be able to contribute appropriately to these conversations, to make comparisons and contrasts, and to analyze and synthesize a multitude of ideas in accordance with the standards of evidence appropriate to a particular discipline. Whatever their intended major or profession, high school graduates will depend heavily on their ability to listen attentively to others so that they are able to build on others' meritorious ideas while expressing their own clearly and persuasively.

New technologies have broadened and expanded the role that speaking and listening play in acquiring and sharing knowledge and have tightened their link to other forms of communication. The Internet has accelerated the speed at which connections between speaking, listening, reading, and writing can be made, requiring that students be ready to use these modalities nearly simultaneously. Technology itself is changing quickly, creating a new urgency for students to be adaptable in response to change.

Grade 8 Speaking and Listening Standards

The following standards offer a focus for instruction each year to help ensure that students gain adequate mastery of a range of skills and applications. Students advancing through the grades are expected to meet each year's grade-specific standards and retain or further develop skills and understandings mastered in preceding grades.

Teacher Note

SL.8.1.B

Collegial discussion is talking about ideas, some of them contentious, with mutual respect for peers even when disagreeing.

SL.8.1.C	Pose questions that connect the ideas of several speakers and respond to others' questions and comments with relevant evidence, observations, and ideas.
SL.8.1.D	Acknowledge new information expressed by others, and, when warranted, qualify or justify their own views in light of the evidence presented.
SL.8.2	Analyze the purpose of information that is gained by means other than reading (e.g., texts read aloud; oral presentations of charts, graphs, diagrams; speeches) and evaluate the motives (e.g., social, commercial, political) behind its presentation.
SL.8.3	Examine a speaker's argument and specific claims, evaluating the soundness of the reasoning and relevance and sufficiency of the evidence and identifying when irrelevant evidence is introduced.
Presentation of Knowledge and Ideas
SL.8.4	Present claims and findings, emphasizing the most important points in a focused, coherent manner with relevant evidence, sound valid reasoning, and well-chosen details; use appropriate eye contact, adequate volume, and clear pronunciation.
SL.8.5	Integrate multimedia and visual displays into presentations to clarify information, strengthen claims and evidence, and add interest.
Teacher Note
SL.8.5 Multimedia is a technique in which several media are employed such as the combining of sound, video, and text for expressing ideas. A visual display is a presentation of information that can be seen.

SL.8.6	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.
Teacher Note
SL.8.6 Formal English reflects particular choices of grammar and vocabulary whereby the speaker or writer uses longer words or words with origins in Latin and Greek and avoids contractions, relative clauses without a relative pronoun, and ellipses. See L.8.1 and L.8.3 for specific language expectations for Grade 8 students when speaking and writing.

Arkansas Anchor Standards for Language

The standards on the following pages define what students should understand and be able to do by the end of the grade or grade span. The grade-specific standards correspond by number to the Arkansas Anchor Standards for Language. The Arkansas Anchor Standards and grade-specific standards are necessary complements--the former providing broad standards, the latter providing additional specificity--that together define the skills and understandings that all students must demonstrate.

Conventions of Standard English

1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.
2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

Knowledge of Language

3. Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening.

Vocabulary Acquisition and Use

4. Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases by using context clues, analyzing meaningful word parts, and consulting general and specialized reference materials, as appropriate.
5. Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings.
6. Acquire and use accurately a range of general academic and domain-specific words and phrases sufficient for reading, writing, speaking and listening; demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when encountering an unknown term important to comprehension or expression.

Note on Range and Content of Student Language Use Grades 6-12

To build a foundation for college and career readiness in language, students must gain control over many conventions of standard English grammar, usage, and mechanics as well as learn other ways to use language to convey meaning effectively. They must also be able to determine or clarify the meaning of grade-appropriate words encountered through listening, reading, and media use; come to appreciate that words have nonliteral meanings, shadings of meaning, and relationships to other words; and expand their vocabulary in the course of studying content. The inclusion of language standards in their own strand should not be taken as an indication that skills related to conventions, effective language use, and vocabulary are unimportant to reading, writing, speaking and listening; indeed, they are inseparable from such contexts.

Grade 8 Language Standards
The following standards for grades K-5 offer a focus for instruction each year to help ensure that students gain adequate mastery of a range of skills and applications. Students advancing through the grades are expected to meet each year's grade-specific standards and retain or further develop skills and understandings mastered in preceding grades.
Conventions of Standard English
L.8.1	Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking as appropriate for Grade 8.
Teacher Note
L.8.1 Standard English is the English language in its most widely accepted form, as written and spoken by educated people in both formal and informal contexts, having universal currency while incorporating regional differences. ("standard English." Dictionary.com Unabridged. Random House, 2016, www.dictionary.com/browse/standard-english. Accessed 30 Aug. 2016.) Formal English reflects particular choices of grammar and vocabulary whereby the speaker or writer uses longer words or words with origins in Latin and Greek and avoids contractions, relative clauses without a relative pronoun, and ellipses.
L.8.1.A	Explain the function of verbals (gerunds, participles, infinitives) in general and their function in particular sentences.
L.8.1.B	Form and use verbs in the active and passive voice.
L.8.1.C	Form and use verbs in the indicative, imperative, and interrogative mood.
L.8.1.D	Recognize and correct inappropriate shifts in verb voice.
L.8.1.E	This standard is taught in Grade 5 and should be reinforced as needed. Use the relative adverbs where, when, and why.
L.8.1.F	Place phrases and clauses within a sentence, recognizing and correcting misplaced and dangling modifiers.
L.8.1.G	This standard is taught in Grade 4 and should be reinforced as needed. Form and use prepositional phrases.

L.8.1.H	This standard is taught in Grade 7 and should be reinforced as needed. Produce a variety of compound complex sentences using dependent clauses, subordinating conjunctions, and coordinating conjunctions.
L.8.1.I	This standard is taught in Grade 4 and should be reinforced as needed. Use modal auxiliaries (e.g., can, may, must) to convey various conditions.
L.8.1.J	This standard is taught in Kindergarten and should be reinforced as needed. Understand and use question words, interrogatives, (e.g., who, what, when, where, why, how).
L.8.1.K	This standard is taught in Grade 3 and should be reinforced as needed. Form all upper- and lowercase letters to write words legibly in cursive.
L.8.2	Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling as appropriate for Grade 8 when writing.
Teacher Note
L.8.2 Standard English is the English language in its most widely accepted form, as written and spoken by educated people in both formal and informal contexts, having universal currency while incorporating regional differences. (“standard English.” Dictionary.com Unabridged . Random House, 2016, www.dictionary.com/browse/standard-english . Accessed 30 Aug. 2016.)
L.8.2.A	This standard is taught in Grade 4 and should be reinforced as needed. Use correct capitalization.
L.8.2.B	Use an ellipsis to indicate an omission.
L.8.2.C	Use punctuation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • commas • ellipses • dashes to indicate a pause or break.

L.8.2.D	Spell correctly.
Teacher Note
L.8.2.D Systematic instruction in spelling is important because spelling impacts comprehension of text. One source that provides research supporting the need for systematic spelling instruction, beyond simply assigning and assessing spelling words, is cited here: (Templeton, Shane. "Vocabulary—Spelling Connection: Orthographic Development and Morphological Knowledge at the Intermediate Grades and Beyond." Research to Practice. Ed James F. Baumann and Edward J. Kame'enui. Guilford P, 2004, pp. 118-138). Two quotes and a scope and sequence document from this article are cited below: "Morphemes, or meaning elements in words, tend to be spelled consistently (Chomsky, 1970); Cummings, 1988; Venezky, 1999), and there is a growing body of research that suggests that systematic attention to this aspect of spelling--how the system visually cues word meaning and the semantic relationships among words--also supports students' vocabulary growth and understanding (e.g., Leong, 2000; Smith, 1998)." "Words that are related in meaning are often related in spelling as well, despite changes in sound" (1991, p. 194). Table 8.1 "Spelling and Vocabulary: General Scope and Sequence, Intermediate Grades and Beyond" on page 124 of the Baumann and Kame'enui text provides general guidance for developing aligned system of spelling instruction. Another helpful resource is Kathy Ganske's text, Word Journeys: Assessment-Guided Phonics, Spelling, and Vocabulary Instruction. The text provides the Developmental Spelling Assessment and vocabulary activities to move students through the learning continuum for spelling. (Ganske, Kathy. Word Journeys: Assessment-Guided Phonics, Spelling, and Vocabulary Instruction. Guilford P, 2000.) These suggested resources are offered to support districts but are not mandated.

Knowledge of Language
L.8.3	Use knowledge of language and its conventions for Grade 8 when writing, speaking, reading, or listening.
L.8.3.A	Use verbs in the active and passive voice to achieve particular effects (e.g., emphasizing the actor or the action).
L.8.3.B	Form and use verbs in the indicative, imperative, and interrogative mood to achieve particular effects.
Vocabulary Acquisition and Use
L.8.4	Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words or phrases based on Grade 8 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of effective strategies.
L.8.4.A	Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence or paragraph, a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
L.8.4.B	Use common, Greek or Latin affixes and roots as clues to the meaning of a word (e.g., precede, recede, secede).
Teacher Note
L.8.4.B A chart with common discipline-specific roots may be found at the following link: http://www.readwritethink.org/files/resources/printouts/content-area-roots.pdf. ("Common Content Area Roots and Affixes." ILA/NCTE, 2016, http://www.readwritethink.org/files/resources/printouts/content-area-roots.pdf. Accessed 30 August 2016.)
L.8.4.C	Consult general and specialized reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning or its part of speech.
L.8.4.D	Verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).

L.8.5	Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings as appropriate for the grade level.
Teacher Note
L.8.5 When aligning curriculum across the grades, figurative language and literary elements should be taken into consideration. Texts should be selected not only for their grade-appropriate complexity but also for the figurative language and literary elements that should be addressed at each grade level. The progression for instruction of figurative language and literary elements should be determined at the building or district level. Nuance is a subtle difference or distinction in expression, meaning, response, etc. A single word choice can convey a nuanced meaning: The girl was _____ (e.g., petite, little, slight, skinny, emaciated, thin, bony, lean, lanky, fragile).
L.8.5.A	Interpret figures of speech (e.g., verbal irony, puns) in context.
L.8.5.B	Use the relationship between particular words to better understand each of the words.
L.8.5.C	Distinguish among the connotations, associations, of words with similar denotations, definitions, (e.g., bullheaded, willful, firm, persistent, resolute).
L.8.5.D	This standard is taught in Grade 1 and should be reinforced as needed. Distinguish shades of meaning among verbs differing in manner (e.g., look, peek, glance, stare, glare, scowl) and adjectives differing in intensity (e.g., large, gigantic) by defining or choosing them or by acting out the meanings.

L.8.6	Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases; gather vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.
Teacher Note
L.8.6 Grade-appropriate refers to texts, materials, resources, and activities that are rigorous enough to engage students in grade-level content and concepts across all strands. Grade-appropriate is tied to text complexity. A wide selection of words will be found in texts that align to the three text complexity measures: quantitative, qualitative, and reader and task for the grade-level text complexity band. The texts should also be selected to include words for appropriate phonics, word study, and spelling development and should have content and literary merit. The text must be rigorous enough to engage students in grade-level concepts across all four strands of the English Language Arts standards. Text selection should be a priority consideration when developing a rigorous grade-appropriate curriculum. These standards refer to two types of vocabulary words. The terminology is based in Isabel Beck’s work. General academic words refers to words that can be used across the disciplines. Domain-specific words are terms that are used within a particular discipline.
