A-5: SUNNY ELIZABETH MILLER

EDUCATOR'S EXHIBIT ONE (1)

December 8, 2019

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Laura and I have known Sunny since August of 2010. We first met teaching at a junior high in Texarkana, Arkansas. We taught next door to each other. From the onset of our professional relationship it was easy to see that Sunny was a strong educator and that I had much to learn from her. She was full of knowledge about things that were important to one's self as a teacher and had a strong positive influence on her students.

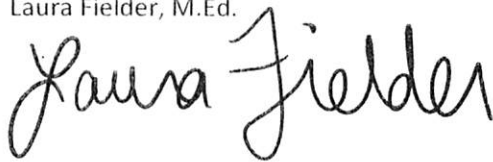

It has come to my attention that Sunny's character as an educator has come in to question. I am writing you to assure you that there is no reason that you nor anyone else has to be concerned about Sunny having a lapse in judgement as far as students are concerned, both inside and outside of the classroom.

As educators we often watch peers (for most of us it's from a distance, people we have never been acquainted with) make poor decisions and get involved in inappropriate situations with young people in the school. Sometimes these can be brief encounters or repeated and repetitive encounters. I am here to speak to you and let you know that beyond a shadow of a doubt Sunny would not now nor ever be someone that you need to worry would be one of those people. She has a strong sense of the divide between adult and child, teacher and student, mature and still maturing.

I have never witnessed, nor have I heard of Sunny being in a situation where she abused her power as an adult or an educator. She is not one to enjoy an abuse of position or take advantage of someone because of their situation or lack of authority. In fact, I would claim the opposite of Sunny as she is a defender of those in need, be it a drastic need or an appropriate need such as a need for an education.

Sincerely,

Laura Fielder, M.Ed.

To whom it may concern:

I am writing this letter in support of Sunny Miller. I have known Sunny for forty-two years. She and I grew up together and she is one of my closest life-long friends. Sunny was raised by a very upstanding family. Her parents are both retired educators. Sunny, as well as her sister, are both educators as well. I have also had a front row seat as Sunny has raised her four children. She is and has always been a fabulous mother.

Aside from knowing Sunny as a personal friend, I also have the pleasure of working with Sunny every day. We teach in the same school and she is just as wonderful a teacher and she is a friend. She is highly respected and very professional. She carries many duties at our school. Not only is she a wonderful and effective teacher, she is also the ESL (English as a Second Language) coordinator and ESL parent facilitator for our school. She writes our school's newsletters and serves as a mentor to other teachers.

I am aware of the accusations made against Sunny Miller. I can tell you without a shadow of a doubt that these accusations are far out of character for my friend of forty-two years. Sunny's morals and professionalism are to be admired and respected. Sunny and I teach in an inner-city, extremely high poverty and highly mobile school in our district. She is a phenomenal educator and relates to our students so well. Our students and staff have are very thankful for the work she does each day to brighten the lives of students who deal with much more than the average school aged child. If our students were to lose Sunny as a teacher, it would be detrimental to their education and our school as a whole.

Respectfully,

To whom it may concern:

I have known Sunny Miller for five years. She is very close to my family as well as my children. Sunny has taught for years in the school district that I live in and that my children have attended. Her wonderful reputation as not only competent but excellent educator proceeds her. I would love for her to have been able to teach my children and trust her explicitly. There isn't a better educator that works with children of minorities than Ms. Miller. It would be a huge disservice for the community if she could no longer educate our children. but it would be of and even more disservice personally for the children that she teaches.

The accusations that have been brought against her are not only false but are malice in nature. The accusations brought against her are totally out of character for Ms. Miller. The accusations are totally preposterous. Ms. Miller is professional in her dealings with her students of which I have witnessed personally.

Sincerely,

Tami Moore RN

To whom this may concern:

I have had the privilege of knowing and working with Sunny Miller since August 2015. She and I both worked together at Hot Springs Middle School. Ms. Miller worked as a math teacher at the time and always enjoyed working with what some would consider the most difficult of students. It was during this time that she and I became fast friends. Her family and my family even shared holiday meals together. Because of student needs, she later was moved to work with low level readers and the students flourished under her direction then as well. I have had the privilege of being in her classroom several times as she was instructing and was very impressed with her pedagogy, her repertoire of instructional strategies, along with her rapport with students, parents and colleagues. The students adored her and always expressed that she helped them understand the challenging subject of middle school math and language arts. Ms Miller's philosophy of education included that she believes all students can learn and that was reflected in her teaching. This philosophy was also reflected in the gains her students made while under her supervision and direction. It is because of this knowledge that I feel the need to speak in defense of Ms. Miller.

I am aware of the outlandish accusations that have been placed on Ms. Miller and I can honestly say, without a doubt, that she would never even dream of causing harm to any one of her students. We spoke at length many times about concerns she had for certain students and she always had the best intentions for her students. She always treated her students the way she would want an educator to treat her very own children.

It is my hope that the court takes this letter into consideration at the time of the hearing. I honestly believe that Ms. Miller is an excellent educator and Arkansas has a huge need for excellent educators. For her to lose her ability to teach would be detrimental to her, her family, and the dear students she is currently teaching. It is with heavy heart that I pray that this is taken into consideration at the time of hearing.

Respectfully,

RE: Ms. Sunny Miller

To Whom It May Concern,

With great pleasure, I write this letter on behalf of Sunny Miller. Ms. Miller and myself have been colleagues and friends for the previous two years. In this time she has proven to be of a fine and responsible character.

In general, Ms. Miller is an intelligent, responsible, caring and dedicated mother as well as a skilled teacher. I have personally seen her extend her deftness and expertise as a mother to her students as well. Ms. Miller has a way of reaching and teaching her students in a manner that is not often seen in the classroom today.

In my time as a Supervisor with Children and Family Services, as well as in my roles as a classroom teacher and Certified School Counselor, I have met a multitude of people from varying backgrounds and feel that I am pretty good "read" of people. It is my personal and professional opinion that Ms. Miller is an incredibly benevolent and dedicated teacher and is nothing short of excellent.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any additional questions regarding this letter.

Sincerely,

Dear Members of the Board:

I am writing this letter on behalf of my daughter Sunny Miller, and it is true that as her mother, I am biased towards her. She is my daughter. How could I not be biased? However, that bias ends when it comes to the question of Ms. Miller's professionalism.

Both Ms. Miller's dad and I are career educators. As is not uncommon with children of educators, Ms. Miller has made education her life's work, too, and on a few occasions, our career paths have intersected. As a matter of fact, we have worked alongside each other in three different school districts. Each of those times I was her supervisor. While I did not hire her, nor was I her official evaluator, I did have several occasions to observe Ms. Miller teach and otherwise interact with her students. Because of those many observations and follow-up conversations, I can attest to her passion for teaching all students. I know that she truly cares about her students' academic growth. Equally important, in my opinion, Ms. Miller cares about her students as individuals, who often need emotional support just to meet the demands of life as a teenager. She offers that support, sometimes with a kind word and always with the expectation that they can succeed. She looks out for the students who need extra shoring up emotionally. She makes every effort to relate to her students and to gain their trust. Without doubt, Ms. Miller is a caring teacher; however, there is more to Ms. Miller than that.

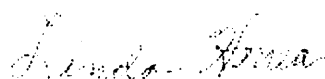

Ms. Miller is also that rare teacher who not only cares about her students, but also is an excellent instructor. In her math classes, I've witnessed her students become interested in learning and realizing they can grasp even the seemingly most difficult of mathematical concepts. Ms. Miller has a knack for finding a way to engage even the most reluctant of students. In one of the schools where we worked, Ms. Miller taught English. In one class in particular, there were several special education students, each with their own learning needs. I was a bit concerned about how any teacher would be able to get this class of students to become engaged in literature, especially with the diverse learning requirements represented. I remember visiting the classroom one day. As I entered the room, I was pleasantly surprised to see all of the students silently reading. I was amazed. How did the teacher do this? Turns out, Ms. Miller had introduced the book in such a way that the students were eager to find out more. So they read. A caring and talented teacher found a way to reach students who some teachers would throw their hands up in frustration over.

I understand that Ms. Miller may lose her license and her job as a result of the allegations brought against her. Although I have no doubt that Ms. Miller would never do any of the things she's been accused of, it saddens me to think that she might not be able to teach if the Board of Education does not find in her favor. Over the course of my long career as a teacher, supervisor, mentor, facilitator, and administrator, I have had the opportunity to observe many teachers going about the business of educating. Ms. Miller is one of the best I've observed. I am proud of her, as her supervisor, and yes, as her mom. As for the profession of education in general and for her students in particular, it would be a terrible loss if Ms. Miller were no longer allowed to teach.

I know as Board Members you have a tough job when deciding in favor of or against teachers when allegations are brought against them. It must be gut-wrenching to take a teacher's license away from them even when the evidence clearly warrants such an action. In the case of Ms. Miller, my sincere hope is that you will find in favor of her and dismiss her case.

Yours truly,

To whom it may concern,

I first had the pleasure of meeting Sunny 6 years ago while teaching with her at Hot Springs School District. It became clear within the first several months that her drive and ambition to teach the students of Hot Springs Junior Academy would be a leading quality that would spread through school. She is a leader amongst her co-workers. She was responsible for implementing the DADS program. She is an excellent teacher with a true heart for kids.

Sunny is also an amazing mother to her 4 kids. She is an inspiration to her daughters and a leader to all of her children. She is thoughtful, kind and caring. Sunny not also a great mom and teacher but she is also a great friend. She puts the needs of others before her own.

Sunny would never do the things she is accused of and losing her as a teacher to our students would be detrimental to their education.

Sincerely,

Crystal Fustin

Justin Charity Ruley- State Board Timeline

September 12, 2019-Pulled off of State Board consent agenda and placed on October action agenda.

September 16, 2019-Shastady emailed Mr. Copeland the State Board hearing notice for the October Meeting.

September 16, 2019-Mr. Copeland responded inquiring if they "did not send in the agreement in time."

September 17, 2019-Taylor informed Mr. Copeland that. "I am going to put together a little packet for the Board and I will send it to you. Would you mind sending me a letter stating that y'all are in full support and have accepted the recommendation"

October 1, 2019- Taylor emailed Mr. Copeland a link to the October State Board of Education agenda.

October 10, 2019-Taylor Emailed Casey to let him know the Board voted on a full hearing on the issues and asked Mr. Copeland to call him.

October 10, 2019-Mr. Copeland let Taylor know he would talk to his client and that "she may not want to mess with it"

October 16, 2019-Taylor contacted Mr. Copeland. "It appeared the Board's concern was there being no evidence of any treatment or Ms. Ruley having a sponsor. The Board voted to have a hearing on the case but I was going to see if Ms. Ruley had any treatment or anything like that. Something showing she's doing well. Would this be something y'all could come down to for the November board meeting or we could do the December meeting? I think we could clear it up with something like that and not need to have a full hearing."

October 21, 2019-Mr. Dugan contacted Mr. Copeland asking for a follow up.

October 21, 2019- Mr. Copeland responded to Taylor that he was "going to get you something from Charity, but she hasn't done any formal substance abuse treatment. She's just moved on, got a job with the federal government." "She agreed to probation terms, and thinks the state should stick to that agreement."

October 21, 2019- Taylor responded, "Thanks Casey!!!! Wanting to get this cleared up and closed out and I appreciate all your help!"

October 30, 2019- Taylor Contacted Mr. Copeland, "Good afternoon! I was just following up!"

November 3, 2019- Mr. Copeland contacted Taylor, "Is this on the November or December docket?"

November 4, 2019-Taylor responded, "It's not on either! We were thinking December. I was waiting to hear from you before we scheduled it. December's meeting is December 12th. They might move these to December 13th but currently it is still December 12th."

November 6, 2019-Formal Hearing Notice for December SBOE meeting mailed. Delivered 11/8/2019. 9171999991703889904895

November 27, 2019-Taylor contacted Mr. Copeland to let him know he would contact him when the agenda posted.

December 6, 2019-Taylor sent Mr. Copeland a link to the agenda.

B-9: LRSD RECONSTITUTION

EXHIBIT ONE (1)

Little Rock School District – Special Agenda

December 6, 2019

Regarding the recommendations of the Community Advisory Board, the Commissioner takes the following actions:

Accept the recommendations of the Community Advisory Board regarding the removal of boundary adjustment Option 3 from consideration and the grandfathering of current high school students.

Accept the recommendations of the Community Advisory Board regarding the adoption of boundary adjustment Option 2 with the following modifications and clarifications:

Pinnacle View – The Division of Public School Academic Facilities and Transportation (DPSAFT) has reviewed the space in the Pinnacle View Administration Building and confirmed it is not suitable for a traditional 9-12 high school. Given the facility's limitations, the continued development of a School of Innovation for grades 9-12 by adding one grade per year is the best option for making high school grades available for up to 400 students. While a preliminary Program of Requirements (POR) analysis identified deficiencies of the facility in accommodating a traditional 9-12 high school of this size, DPSAFT is comfortable with waiving the POR requirements to adjust to the School of Innovation's instructional methodology, without risk of creating safety, security, or academic concerns for students.

On the Option 2 map, the Pinnacle View MS zone is split into a north and south section. These two sections combined represent a high school attendance zone that looks forward to a time when the district has the means to offer a traditional high school in this part of the city. For the 2020-21 school year, and until such time that the district can offer a traditional high school, Option 2 affords students a number of choices for attending LRSD high schools that currently are not available.

1. Students residing in the Pinnacle View MS zone who complete 8th grade at Pinnacle View will be granted preference to attend Pinnacle View School of Innovation, subject to space availability. If space remains available after enrollment of the students with preference, students residing in other zones may attend Pinnacle View School of Innovation until capacity is reached.
2. Once the capacity of Pinnacle View School of Innovation has been reached, students residing in the Pinnacle View MS zone can attend Central HS as the zoned school. These students are also eligible to apply for the high school magnet options at Central, Parkview, Hall, and Southwest.

Action: Continue adding one high school grade per year to Pinnacle View under the School of Innovation model until grades 9-12 are fully in place. Further, adopt a high school attendance zone, concurrent with the existing Pinnacle View Middle School zone, to serve students at such time that the district provides a traditional high school in this area of the district.

Southwest High School – The excitement of a new, state of the art education facility, coupled with the opportunities inherent to the Ford NGL model, creates a tremendous opportunity for a magnet program at Southwest High School that could be a significant step toward attracting students from all areas of the district. This opportunity could be enhanced through a collaboration of LRSD, the Division of Career and Technical Education, the Division of Higher Education, and the Division of Elementary and Secondary Education to develop weighted concurrent credit courses as part of the magnet programming. Action: Create a magnet program at Southwest High School around the Ford NGL model.

Hall High School – The work done to improve teaching and learning at Hall HS is notable, and the data indicate that progress is being made. However, for Hall HS to truly meet the needs of students and the community, as well as to regain the level of educational standing it long enjoyed, a bolder step is needed. This bold step can be taken through the development and implementation of a magnet school focused on STEAM, including medical professions and computer science, to begin in the 2020-21 school year for grades 9-12. Students completing 8th grade at Forest Heights STEM Academy will be given preference for entry into the Hall STEAM Magnet. To make the Hall STEAM Magnet even more attractive to students, Hall will offer eSports through the Arkansas Activities Association, and Hall will be the exclusive high school for eSports through the 2022-23 school year. Action: Establish Hall High School as a magnet school as described above with no attendance zone. The district may consider implementing an appropriate shadow zone.

Regarding the recommendations of Superintendent Mike Poore, the Commissioner takes the following actions:

Approve the LRSD Community Blueprint modification to move the Rockefeller Elementary K-5 to the Washington Elementary campus for the 2020-21 school year. Additionally, Rockefeller will be utilized as a birth to pre-K center.

Pause until the 2021-22 school year the conversion of J.A. Fair to a K-8 campus incorporating students from David O. Dodd Elementary, Romine Elementary, and Henderson Middle School. Further, it is directed the LRSD Facilities Master Plan be updated to reflect this planned future use of the J.A. Fair campus.
