MY NAME IS Christopher Bethel and the department requested that the State Board of Education deny my eligibility for licensure for a criminal offense that occurred 11 years ago. I was instructed to send a request to for a hearing to waive the offense. I would like to request that waiver hearing as I have already finished my first two years toward my teaching degree at UACCB and I can't continue my studies at UALR until the offense is waived. I'm not really sure what my next step is, so if you could help guide me in the right direction I would be very appreciative. I have access to transcripts, character witnesses, work history, and employment references.

To whom it may concern:

I am writing on behalf of Chris Bethel. I have known Mr. Bethel for two years as I have been the self-contained teacher for one of his children. Mr. Bethel has always been courteous to me and very pleasant to the other children. In this past year he has had observations in my classroom for the college class he was taking and has volunteered at Special Olympic events. When observing in my classroom he was friendly to the students and assisted in any way I asked. He was an invaluable help during the Special Olympic events, he made it a point to take his son and help him participate in all of the events so that my aides and I were able to help the more severe students and push wheelchairs. To whom it may concern,

I am writing in reference to Chris Bethel whom I have known now for almost 4 years as both co-worker and friend.

Chris as a co-worker has always proven himself to be helpful, forthcoming, pleasant and willing to go the extra mile. Chris always goes above and beyond both in his job and as a friend. He is always positive and has a smile for everyone.

As a friend Chris has always made me smile and I know in my heart that he would be there for me in a crisis. He is a great father and husband and will always put his family first. He is forever offering to help me with the smallest of things, things that others take for granted but mean the most. Chris is a total team player.

Chris deserves so much more, not only because he is an exceptional young man, but because he served his country with honor and integrity.

Chris Bethel has always put others first, has always had a smile for those who are down and will always be an outstanding and exceptional young man.

I don't not feel that someone who is trying SO hard to better himself and his education, both for himself and his family, should be discriminated against for something that happened over a decade ago.

I am proud to be his friend and I am richer for having him in my life

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you require any additional information.

I have known Chris Bethel for 8 years. In those 8 years, I have seen him go through hard times only to come out a better, stronger person and father. He has held the same job while parenting 2 children with special needs. My personal favorite thing about Chris is he adopted his wife's children because he knew "step" wasn't enough. He knew that the boys needed a father, a great role model, protector, and provider. And that is exactly what Chris is! He also is going back to school to become a teacher. He is going to be amazing at this! He has a wonderful way with children and such a caring heart, any school would be lucky to have him! I know my son was very excited when Chris did his student teaching at his school. He said that Chris was way funnier than his teacher and that it was cool to have a guy teacher because of guy stuff. I'm grateful that my son has another great role model to learn from or to go to for help. We all know that Chris can be counted on and trusted. He truly is a great friend. If you have any other questions
