The Department of Education's Division of Elementary and Secondary Education will host an Educator Commitment Signing Day event at the Capitol (in keeping with COVID-19 safety guidelines). Gov. Asa Hutchinson and ADE Secretary Johnny Key will join aspiring teachers in signing a commitment to education. The commitment certificate demonstrates a pledge to the students of Arkansas, the teaching profession, and the future of education in the state.

The event on Friday joins others held this week around the state to celebrate Educator Commitment Signing Week (April 12-16, 2021). Learn more about how to become an Arkansas teacher at <https://bit.ly/3uZlpeF>.
