Code of Ethics Allegation Information Packet

The Professional Licensure Standards Board (“PLSB”) is dedicated to keeping Arkansas students safe and the teaching profession professional. As stated in the Rules Governing the Code of Ethics for Arkansas Educators, the PLSB is empowered by law to authorize investigations against Educators and determine if a violation of the Code of Ethics for Arkansas Educators occurred.

The Code of Ethics applies to persons holding a valid Arkansas standard teaching license, ancillary license, provisional license, technical permit, or administrator’s license issued by the State Board of Education, even if the license expires during the pendency of the ethics complaint process; a preservice teacher; an individual employed under a waiver from licensure; or a person employed under an emergency teaching permit.

While the PLSB has the authority to take action against an educator’s license, it does not have the ability to order local school districts or charter schools to take any particular action regarding an educator’s employment. Employment decisions are handled at the local level. Therefore, working with the school’s administration and/or school board members could potentially be a quicker and more efficient way of addressing a potential complainant’s concerns.

The PLSB investigative process has multiple steps. A flow chart of the complaint process has been included in this packet. Allegations are reviewed on a monthly basis at the scheduled Ethics Subcommittee meeting.

A PLSB staff member will contact the complainant to verify the information provided in the Allegation of Violation Form prior to the review and potential authorization of the complaint. Complainants may not file anonymously. The accused educator is the only entity entitled to records pertaining to an authorized ethics complaint filed against them.

All records and all hearings, meetings, and deliberations relating to an ethics complaint are confidential and exempt from the Freedom of Information Act of 1967, except those records that are relied upon by the State Board of Education to render a decision based on a recommendation from the Ethics Subcommittee. (Ark. Code § 25-19-101) State Board Orders for educators issued a sanction of a written reprimand or greater may be found on the Division of Elementary and Secondary Education’s webpage under State Board Orders for PLSB and Licensure Actions.

Complainants should complete the Allegation of Violation Form with all information available, including any available evidence (i.e. video footage, text, emails, audio, etc.). Complainants shall complete one Allegation of Violation Form per accused educator. Complainants shall not file complaints that are frivolous or in bad faith. Complainants must provide an original signature under penalty of perjury and mail the original document to the following address:

The PLSB Investigative Process

The Allegation of Violation form is received by the Division of Elementary and Secondary Education. Once received a PLSB staff member will contact the individual who filed the allegation (“the complainant”) and validate the form.

At their next scheduled monthly meeting, the Ethics Subcommittee will review all information submitted by the complainant and either authorize or deny the allegation for investigation.

If denied, the complainant will receive notification in the mail that the allegation has been denied. The educator will not be notified of the allegation.

If authorized, both the complainant and the educator will be notified by mail. The educator will receive a copy of the complaint and supporting documents with their authorization letter.

The complaint is assigned to a PLSB investigator who conducts an investigation into the alleged conduct. A final report of investigation is completed and mailed to the accused educator for review.

The final report of investigation is reviewed by the ethics subcommittee. The ethics subcommittee determines the following:

No preponderance of evidence found. Case closed.

Preponderance of evidence found. Sanction recommended.

If the sanction is accepted or no response is received, the case is placed on the consent agenda for state board review. An educator may exercise his or her right to appeal a recommended sanction.

Checklist of Additional Guidance for Completing Allegation of Violation Form:

Name of Accused Educator: Means the name of the person whose conduct is alleged to have violated the Code of Ethics.

Complainant Name: Means the name of the person who is making the allegation. If it is on behalf of a school district, it means the district's contact for this complaint such as the superintendent, or the superintendent's designee.

Date of Incident: Be specific if a specific date is known. If there is a date range/school year/event, list that date range.

Date of Notification: The date the complainant was notified or learned of the alleged incident.

Statement of Alleged Conduct: Write a detailed factual statement of the events or conduct that you believe violated the Code of Ethics. Be specific with regard to names of involved persons, students, and/or witnesses. Please use dates, even approximate, wherever appropriate.

Details of Incident: Identify any other reporting or other steps to resolve the issue that you have undertaken concerning the alleged conduct and the outcome of reporting.

Brief Description of Witness Involvement: Indicate the individual's involvement in the alleged incident and/or attach the witness' written statement.

Perjury: Act 1045 of 2011 requires that complainants sign the allegation form under penalty of perjury. Signing under penalty of perjury means that you believe that the facts and circumstances alleged are true, it does not mean that the information will ultimately be proven to be true.
