Provide a brief description of the purpose or emphasis of the school:

Birchwood Harvest Charter School has a mission to ensure ALL learn. It's purpose is to help students and families learn in a way that meets their needs, the Harvest Way. This charter school will be an alternative option for families with an emphasis on therapeutic learning and engagement. The purpose extends to provide a learning environment and culture that ensures All stakeholders are involved in the student's education. We will bridge gaps in parent and community involvement, effective communication, academic learning deficits, inclusive learning for students with special and exceptional needs, and create a healthy culture among staff, students, and families. The Harvest Way is a model that brings nature, arts, interests, and skills of all stakeholders to the table. ALL truly does mean ALL at Birchwood Harvest Charter School.
