	teach about the Civil Rights Movement and integration to the class. (1-2 class periods) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 4. For the timeline activity, teacher and students brainstorm a list of events that would be researched and placed on the timeline. If scaffolding is needed, teacher could give each group notecards (or a list- see Additional Notes) with key events of school integration on them. 5. Students will research the events, note the date/year the event occurred, and summarize the event. This information will then be placed on the timeline. (1-2 class periods) 6. Class discussion (whole group or in groups of 4-5): Using the information gained from making your timeline, compare school desegregation in Arkansas schools, as well as other schools in the nation. In what ways were they similar? In what ways were they different? (1 class period)
