A-2. State Board Hearing - Request for Waiver- LA-21-001; Katherine Hoyt

Presenter: Jennifer Link

Description: The Arkansas Department of Education received information that educator has a true finding for Abuse in the Child Maltreatment Central Registry. A true finding in the Child Maltreatment Central Registry is disqualifying pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. § 6-17-410. The educator is requesting a waiver.

Ms. Hoyt was represented by attorney Jeff Rosensweig. Chair. Newton swore in Ms. Hoyt.

Mr. Rosensweig asserted in his opening statement that Ms. Hoyt is appealing her placement on the Child Maltreatment Registry. Ms. Link noted that Ark. Code Ann. § 6-17-410 (c) states that the SBE "shall" revoke any existing license up for renewal for any person who has a true report in the Child Maltreatment Registry.

Mr. Rosensweig conducted a direct examination of Ms. Hoyt. State board members asked clarifying questions of Mr. Rosensweig, Ms. Holt, and ADE attorneys.

Dr. Moore, seconded by Mr. Sutton, moved to grant a waiver. A roll call was taken. The motion passed unanimously. Mr. Rosensweig stated that he would report the circuit court resolution to Ms. Freno and Ms. Link.

A-3. Act 1240 Digital Learning Applications and Waivers

Presenter: Dr. Kiffany Pride, Stacy Smith, Don Benton, Deborah Coffman, and Tally Harp

Ms. Smith began by introducing the application process for waivers related to digital learning. She talked about the difference in this year and last, when all schools sought waivers due to COVID. Dr. Pride made a presentation about the Digital Guidebook and other supports ADE has given to schools as they design their digital programs for their stakeholders. She outlined the major components schools need to consider: Interaction (synchronous or asynchronous), delivery, and platform. ADE utilized the Digital Guidebook in multiple trainings across the state, including strategic planning sessions with individual school districts. They communicated expectations with districts. Districts submitted applications, and ADE gave them feedback on the components that did not meet digital program expectations. An ADE review team thoroughly checked submitted applications. Once an application met all digital learning expectations they were recommended by ADE staff to be submitted to the SBE for expedited approval.

Ten district digital learning applications and requests for Act 1240 waivers under consideration this meeting: Trumann, Pea Ridge, Springdale, Bergman, Fort Smith, Rogers, Russellville, Harrison, Texarkana, and Westside (Johnson Co.)

State Board members asked multiple clarifying questions. A lengthy discussion took place about many components of the digital learning applications. It was agreed a work session would be set up to go through the applications and process more thoroughly. Dr. Moore moved, seconded by Ms. Woods, to table Action Item 3 until the next meeting on May 27. The motion passed unanimously.
