

ETHICS AND PROFESSIONALISM IN CHILD NUTRITION

ETHICS

- Ethics are the overall rules and regulations for a workplace.
- These are what is expected by every employee and guides their behavior

WHY HAVE A CODE OF ETHICS?

- The Code of Ethics ensures that the employees of The School Nutrition Association maintain the association's standards to the highest level.
- https://schoolnutrition.org/uploadedFiles/5_Learning_Center/6_Ethics/SNA-Code-of-Ethics.pdf

COMMON MISBEHAVIORS

- Misuse of company time
- Abusive behavior
- Theft
- Lying
- Violating the organization's internet policies

COMMON STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

- Adhere to workplace policies
- Be a team player
- Avoid gossip
- Be accountable for mistakes
- Show respect
- Keep your promises
- Report ethical violations

PROFESSIONALISM

- Professionalism is someone's
 - Physical appearance
 - Attitude
 - Behavior

PROFESSIONALISM IN LEADERSHIP

- Be consistent
- Follow all policy and procedures
- Be respectful
- Be trustworthy
- Keep professional relationships

MAINTAINING PROFESSIONALISM IN CONVERSATIONS

- Have a mutual mindset
- Don't judge
- Listening effectively
- Be empathetic