Findings:
1) According to 7CFR 210.31(f) a district must retain records showing compliance with wellness requirements including triennial assessment, updates to local wellness policy and demonstration that these are made available to the public. The Wellness Committee had meetings, but there were no 'official' meeting minutes or member attendance records. There was no documentation of actions taken by the committee or updates to the Wellness Policy. 2) The district website did not have the Non-discrimination statement posted and the abbreviated statement was not found on menus. Corrected at time of review.
