

November 13, 2023

CONTACT: DuShun Scarbrough, Executive Director
Arkansas Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission
dushun.scarbrough@ade.arkansas.gov
PHONE: 888-290-KING

The Arkansas Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission to Hold Open House November 16

LITTLE ROCK – The Arkansas Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission is pleased to host an open house event from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on November 16, 2023, at its office located at 906 Broadway, Suite 100, Little Rock, Arkansas 72201.

The open house event promises an engaging and informative experience for attendees of all ages. Visitors will have the opportunity to tour the commission's facility, meet team members, and learn more about the commission's mission, values, and wide range of services and programs offered to the community.

"We are excited to open our doors and welcome the community to learn more about what the Arkansas Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission has to offer," DuShun Scarbrough, the commission's executive director, said. "This event is a fantastic opportunity for individuals to get a firsthand look at the positive impact we make in Arkansas, and we look forward to meeting new faces."

The open house event aligns with the commission's commitment to foster connections within the community and showcase the valuable resources available. Visitors will receive a free copy of the book, "Life Is..." written by De'Leice R. Drane, speaker and author who works for the Martin Luther King, Jr. Center for Nonviolent Social Change.

About the Arkansas Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission

The Arkansas Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission is dedicated to promoting Dr. King's dream of equality, justice, and peace through education and community outreach programs. By engaging with various communities across Arkansas, the commission works toward fostering understanding, tolerance, and cooperation among all citizens.